

PETER SCOTT

VP of Sales, Canada and International Markets

Peter Scott is a well-respected leader with more than 25 years of experience and success in the home health care sector.

Peter started his career in the rehab sector with a home health care vendor in Vancouver. In 1995, he moved to Advanced Health Care to become the Western Canada Representative. Peter was transferred to Ontario in 1998 to become the National Sales Manager. In 2010, Peter was named VP of Sales for Advanced Health Care where managed a sales team of 11 representatives.

In September of 2016, after 21 years, Advanced Health Care was acquired, and Peter made the move to PDG Mobility to become VP of Sales for Canada and all International Markets outside of the United States. In Canada, he manages a team of dedicated regional product specialists. Internationally, Peter works with distributors in several countries to promote PDG's product line. Peter has a strong work ethic and is committed to excellence, making customer service and satisfaction his first priority at all times.

Peter has been married for almost 30 years and has three children. He enjoys all sports, especially golf, and spending time on the 19th hole.

